Department of Anthropology Student Research Award

Purpose: To support current students who are pursuing research projects that have not received money from the university's student research funding office (LUROP).

Deadlines: Rolling deadline

Eligibility: Anthropology (BA/BS), Anthropology/Sociology majors, or Anthropology minors. Majors can apply for up to $500 and minors can apply for up to $250. One research award can be awarded per student, per fiscal year.

Basic Information:

Name:

Program:

Anthro GPA:

Rank:

Overall GPA:

Email:

Research Funding Information:

Abstract/Summary of your research project (do not exceed 250 words):

Are you completing this research as (select one):

Are you undertaking this research as part of a (check all that apply):

Independent Study?   Independent fieldwork?

Directed Readings?   Honors Thesis?

Course credit hours: Supervising professor:

Budget Request Information: Please provide an itemized budget below, including actual or anticipated costs. Majors can apply for up to $500 and minors can apply for up to $250.

Please list any funding (with amount) you have received or applied for, for this research. If none, then please put "N/A" in the box.

Submission information: Email your completed application to Dr. Hallett (ehallett2).