

The Forgotten and Not Forgotten Reformers of Family

By Harry L Tindall
Houston, Texas

Many people have worked to reform of family law in our nation. Several deserve recognition for significant contributions.

Parentage and Equal Rights for Non-Marital Children

Thomas Levy, counsel in Levy v Louisiana
William F Wessel, counsel in Glona v American Guarantee & Liability Ins Co
Justice William O Douglass, Supreme Court of the United States

Parental Kidnapping and Prevention Act

U. S. Senator Malcolm Wallop, Wyoming

Child Support Reform

U. S. Senator Bill Bradley, New Jersey
Congressman William Archer
Margaret Campbell Haynes, Chair, U. S. Commission on Interstate Child Support