IMPORTANT

Please note that complete withdrawal from the university or a withdrawal that reduces your credit load below the minimum semester requirement may have financial aid implications, including, but not limited to requiring that you return any and all funds received for the term (including cost of living expenses) or loss of deferment of other student loans. Please contact Financial Aid at lufinaid@luc.edu to discuss the financial aid consequences before completing this request.

A change of registration status may also impact your grades. Depending on the date of your withdrawal, you may receive a grade of "W" (Withdraw), "F" (Failing), or other academic marks for the courses. Please contact your Academic Advisor for further information.

Reason(s) for request. (Please provide any supporting documentation if available.)

For Student Withdrawals or Leaves of Absence:

Whenever a student withdraws from the School of Law, we would like to learn as much as we can about that student's experience so that we can better serve our students in the future. For this reason, would you mind taking a few moments to respond to the questions below? Thanks.
