

Justice for Genocide: A Survivor's Story

Friday
November 8, 2013

12:30 PM and 3:00 PM

Mullady Theater

Loyola University Chicago
Lakeshore Campus

Sponsored by

The Department of Modern Languages & Literatures
And
The Latin American
Studies Program

Anselmo Roldán Aguilar, genocide survivor and current Vice-President of the Association for Justice and Reconciliation (AJR) in Guatemala, will speak on his role within the AJR, the historic genocide trial of former dictator Ríos Montt, and his own story as a survivor of genocide.