

Comparison of Provost's Summer Research Stipend and ORS Research Support Grants

Area	Provost's Summer Research Stipend	ORS Research Support Grants
Amount	$7,000	$5,000
Review Process	2 stages: (a) Recommendation from department/school/college Internal Review Committee who forwards to Chairperson/Dean for approval; (b) Review by the Faculty Development Review Committee (election from each unit, details here)	Review by 2 faculty members of the ORS Advisory Group
Submission Deadline	October 15	Quarterly: August, November, February, May
Eligibility	All tenured and tenure-track faculty from LSC and Marcella Niehoff School of Nursing; Faculty members receiving the award must return to the faculty during the academic year following the award	All full-time faculty from LSC
Purpose	To help faculty conduct research that will advance their scholarship program. Not intended for course development or for teaching-related work.	To help faculty conduct preliminary research that will be used to strengthen external grants proposals for a larger scale project
Timeline	Summer term only	12 months from date of award
Restrictions on expenses	Summer research stipend can only be issued as salary	Faculty salary, degree-related work, travel to attend conferences, computers
Post-award requirements	Single-page report to the University Faculty Development Review Committee by December 15 following the summer of award	Final report to ORS within 90 days of the approved end date of the grant