

The 356th Meeting of
The Chicago Society of Biblical Research
January 29, 2011
Loyola University Chicago

Theme: Women in the Biblical World

Program (2:45 – 5:45 p.m.)

Robert A Atkins, Jr., Grace United Methodist Church, Naperville, IL

2:45 Lowell K. Handy, ATLA
“Since Huldah Was a Woman: A Historical Survey of Reading 2 Kings 22:14 // 2 Chronicles 34:22 When the Readers Thought Gender Mattered”

3:35 Lisa Marie Belz, Loyola University Chicago
“Women Members of the Association(s) Behind the Qumran Scrolls: In Search of a More Credible Paradigm”

4:25 Break

4:40 Business Meeting

4:55 Nancy D. Pardee, St. Xavier University
“The Mother of Jesus in the Johannine Community”

5:45 Adjournment

6:00 Dinner

Dinner

Dinner is available at no cost to CSBR members who send in their RSVPs by January 24. For non-member guests who stay for dinner, a $10 charge will apply per person. Send your RSVPs to choir@andrews.edu.

Nominations

If you are a current member of the CSBR and wish to nominate a new member to the society, please send (1) your nomination letter signed and printed on letterhead and (2) a copy of the most current CV of your nominee, by surface mail to:

Prof. P. Richard Choi
 Chair of the NT Department
 Andrews University
 Theological Seminary
 Berrien Springs, MI 49104-1546

Your documents must be received by January 21 if you wish your nominee's name to be considered during the winter business meeting.

Future Meetings

The CSBR Spring Meeting will be hosted by the University of Chicago, Divinity School, on April 16, 2011 at 2:45 p.m., honoring Professor David Aune of the University of Notre Dame. The presenters will be:

- Pauline Viviano, Loyola University Chicago
- David Moessner, University of Dubuque Theological Seminary
- Thomas Tobin, Loyola University Chicago,
- Hans-Dieter Betz (Tribute), The University of Chicago

The CSBR Fall Meeting will be hosted by the LSTC on Sunday, October 23, 2011, honoring Professor David Rhoads of the LSTC. The theme of the meeting will be Performance in Antiquity and Performance Criticism. The tentative program is as follows.

2.45- 2:50	Introduction (includes a short performance of the NT)
2.50- 3.30	Michele Lowrie , University of Chicago, Classics, "Performances in Augustan Rome - on the Basis of Selected Examples / on the Basis of Horace's Carmen saeculare and Tibullus"
3.30- 4.15	Performing (in) Mark: The Dance of Herodias's Daughter and the Death of John the Baptist in Mark 6, Jeffrey Jay, University of Chicago, New Testament
4.15- 4.30	Response by David Rhoads , discussion
4.30- 4.45	Break
4.45- 4.55	Business meeting
4.55- 5.00	Tribute to David Rhoads, Donald M. Michie , Carthage College Kenosha
5.00- 5.45	Klaus-Peter Adam , LSTC, "Dramatic Narratives and Aspects of Performance in the Books of Samuel (1Sam 14; 28)"
5.45	Adjournment
6.00	Dinner
7.00	Phil Ruge-Jones , "Performance of Mark 1-7" (LSTC, Augustana Chapel)

Current Officers

- James A. Kelhoffer, President
- Robert A. Atkins, Jr., Vice President
- Nancy D. Pardee, Treasurer
- Troy W. Martin, Editor of BR
- P. Richard Choi, Secretary

Driving directions to Loyola University Chicago

Please click on <http://www.luc.edu/campusguide/lsc.shtml> for driving directions, and click on <http://www.luc.edu/about/pdfs/lsc.pdf> for a map of the campus. The meeting will be held in the Crown Center for the Humanities (building 14 on the campus map), in the Crown Center Auditorium on the 2nd floor.