the SORCERESS

[LE MOINE ET LA SORCIÈRE]

This movie takes its inspiration from an account, by the 13th century Dominican inquisitor Stephen of Bourbon, of a rather unusual healing cult in France...

Medieval witchcraft, healing practices, official and “folk” religion, aristocratic oppression and female empowerment are just a few of the topics addressed!

Dog lovers in particular will love this film.

FREE and open to all – but please RSVP so we know how much food to order, and to get your (optional) readings packet by return e-mail!

For questions and RSVP, please contact Dr Gross-Diaz, Director, Medieval Studies Center:
